Information on Calibre Leadership Programme

Introduction

The School is sponsoring two staff members to participate in the 2014 Calibre Programme, a leadership development programme for disabled staff run by Imperial College.

We recognise the value of undertaking professional development programmes with others who share a common characteristic or common set of challenges. Such programmes are intended to complement, not to replace, the other training opportunities offered to School staff.

Essential Facts about Calibre

The programme starts on 16th January 2014 and runs until May 2014.

Applicants must be able to attend all the modules which are held on: 16th Jan, 29th Jan, 13th Feb, 11th March, 8th April, 16th May

The programme is endorsed by the Institute for Leadership and Management and participants are required to carry out a personal project related to their role that will enhance their leadership abilities.

Line-manager support and involvement are required – Lunch-time Briefing for Line-Managers 12.00 – 2.00 17th January

The programme is delivered by Dr Ossie Stuart, an international disability consultant and academic, who has led seminars at LSHTM.

The programme costs £1,500. This fee will be covered by the Talent and Educational Development (TED) budget.

For more information on the programme please see the website:
