2. Programme Aims & Learning Outcomes

Educational aims of the programme
The aim of the programme – consistent with LSHTM's mission to improve health worldwide – is to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to improve the health of populations, communities and particular groups within them. The focus is mainly on high-and middle-income countries. The emphasis is on the use, development and critical evaluation of conceptual models, evidence and methods of analysis, and on effective interventions and policies at local, national and international levels.

Programme Learning Outcomes
By the end of the programme, students will be expected to achieve the following learning outcomes – drawing on material taught across different elements and assessed in a variety of ways.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) demonstrate ability to apply knowledge of the core disciplines of public health, consisting of statistics; epidemiology; health economics; and social research, to real world health problems; ii) critically assess key public health functions; iii) demonstrate knowledge and skills in a range of topics related to public health internationally; iv) formulate, implement and evaluate appropriate policy responses to public health problems; v) show competence in critically evaluating and communicating research evidence.

Teaching and Learning Strategy
The programme is taught through a variety of teaching methods including: lectures, small group seminars, practical, and groupwork with peers. All elements of the programme have specific learning objectives, with content designed to help students achieve these outcomes. Students are expected to learn through both directed and self-directed study.

Assessment Strategy
The programme is assessed through individual module assessments (which may include essays, other written coursework, short written exams, practical exams, groupwork, presentations or other methods), formal summer exams, and a project report. Such tasks are designed to assess, via the most appropriate method, whether learning objectives have been met.

4: Entry Requirements

Criteria for admission

Entry to the MSc Public Health is highly competitive. Applicants must normally satisfy LSHTM's general entrance requirements and additional programme-specific entrance requirements to be considered for admission. Applications must be submitted in accordance with the procedures and deadlines given in the web-based or printed prospectus.

In order to be admitted to a postgraduate taught degree programme of the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, an applicant must:

- a) hold a Bachelor's degree at Upper Second Class Honours grade in a relevant discipline, or another degree of equivalent awarded by an overseas institution recognised by UK Naric or Barrons.

OR

- b) hold a professional qualification appropriate to the programme of study to be followed obtained by written examinations and judged by the School to be equivalent to an Upper Second Class Honours Bachelor's degree.

OR

- c) have relevant professional experience or training which is judged by the School to be equivalent to an Upper Second Class Honours Bachelor's degree or above.

AND

satisfy any additional requirements where prescribed for admission to a specific programme.

Additional information

The programme requires a high degree of numeracy. It is essential that applicants have studied some mathematics or statistics in post-16 year education.

Preference will be given to applicants with relevant work experience.

English language entry requirements

Band B

It is essential that all students have a good command of the English language to benefit from their studies at the School.

As part of the application process, applicants are required to demonstrate how they meet the School's minimum English language requirements. This is particularly important for applicants requiring a Tier 4 Student visa, as the UK Home Office dictates that every student from outside the UK and European Union (EU) must show evidence of a minimum level of English language ability (called CEFR1 B2 level), in order for a Tier 4 Student visa to be issued for entry to the UK.

Additionally, the School asks applicants to have minimum English language proficiency levels that are necessary for our academic programmes. These levels are higher than the CEFR B2 minimum level and also apply to EU applicants, although these will not normally require a Tier 4 Student visa.

The academic English language requirements for each of the School's programmes are categorised into one of three profiles A, B or C. For information on these three profiles, please refer to the LSHTM English Language Requirement Policy: <https://www.lshtm.ac.uk/files/english-language-requirements.pdf>
