Dear Gordon.

I saw Dr Macdonald the other day, and he says he considers that I am well enough to look after my own affairs, and will sign the necessary document to this effect if I will get hold of it. Will you please see about this as soon as possible.

I am considering paying Mother something for my keep, although I cannot understand why I, out of the five of us, should be selected to do this, especially as I have been at home the least during the last 7 years. I shall point this out to the Charities authorities if they make any inquiries.

Yours sincerely, Jean.

Dear Gordon.

I heard from Arthur some time ago - who tells me that he is making various arrangements about my income without having previously consulted me at all.
I strongly object to this, & have asked Dr Macdonald, of 31, Queen Anne Street, if he

Considers that I am well enough he has said that he is willing at any time to sign a paper to this effect. I will be seeing him quite soon & will discuss the matter further with him.

Dr Watson (who died at Xmas) was going to sign a paper to this effect, but died just before doing so. So he also must have considered that I was sufficiently well.

Dr Macdonald is very insistent that I am quite well enough and if you have any doubts on the subject you can write to him.

Yours sincerely
Jean.
