

ADMISSION

- This scholarship offer is conditional upon the applicant submitting a masters study application to the School and satisfying all of the conditions stipulated in his/her offer of admission.
- Applicants must meet the School's minimum English Language Requirements if shortlisted for this funding.
- By submitting an application for funding:
  - the applicant is confirming that the information provided on their admissions and scholarships applications, and all supporting documents, is true and accurate.
  - the applicant confirms that s/he will return to his/her home country after the completion of the scholarship.
  - the applicant consents to his/her admissions and funding application documents, including uploaded supporting documents and references, being released to the scholarship subpanel.
  - the applicant agrees to informing the scholarships team immediately of any change in information provided in the application form.

FUNDING OFFER

- The successful applicant(s) will be sent a funding offer by e-mail.
- To accept the offer of funding the successful applicant must email the Scholarships team: scholarships@lshtm.ac.uk as soon as possible, and by the deadline date stated on the award letter at the latest, to accept this award. If the School does not receive a response from the award recipient by this date we will assume the nominated candidate is declining this award. Therefore, we will retract our funding offer and make an offer for the same award to the next reserve candidate.
- The award recipient must complete the separate UK bank account details form and return this to scholarships@lshtm.ac.uk as soon as possible, and within 2 weeks of initial LSHTM registration at the latest.

GENERAL

- Accepting this award constitutes a legal signature that the award recipient acknowledges and agrees to the declaration, and studentship terms and conditions.
- The award recipient must inform the scholarships team immediately of any changes to his/her personal circumstances during the period of support which could affect the award. I understand that if, because of an alteration, it transpires that excess grant funding has been paid, the amount of the excess will be refunded by me to the institution.
- We expect students to adhere to the behavioural guidelines and regulations of the School. Funded students who do not do so may be at risk of losing their funding. For further information on these guidelines and regulations, please read through the General Regulations for Students.

- Funded students must maintain satisfactory academic progress at the School and a good standing towards degree requirements for the duration of their enrolment.
- Funds paid to the award recipient once the award has been terminated, or paid in error, or inappropriately, will be reclaimed. The award recipient must understand that the giving of any false information or withholding of relevant information may lead to the termination of any allowance granted and the institution of proceedings for the recovery of any amounts paid by the School.
- Award recipients agree to writing a 250-word student profile for use in School publications and on the website. They also give consent to the School to announce their name and funding award and to use photographic images of the award recipient/s in their publications and on the website.
- Where a studentship has been made possible by a private gift or donation to the School the award recipient is expected to write a short (50-100 word) thank-you letter to the donor. The Development Office will provide guidance on suggested content to the relevant studentship recipients following initial registration.
- Award recipients agree to submit regular reports to the funder, as and when required to do so.
