#Contagious Passion

Wednesday 1 February 2017, 1 - 5pm
Welcome to our Open Day!

The School is widely recognised as a world-leading school of public and global health, working closely with partners in the UK and worldwide to address contemporary and future critical health challenges.

In recent years, the School has grown in reach and influence and has been named University of the Year (Times Higher Education 2016); and ranked second for impact in the UK (Research Excellence Framework 2014) and third in the world for social sciences and public health (US News Best Global Universities Ranking 2015).

We hope that by coming to our open day and meeting our staff and students, you will be inspired by our #ContagiousPassion and join us in our mission of improving health worldwide.

Have questions? Need directions?

Our Student Ambassadors are here to help you! You can also carry on the conversation by email at virtual.lshtm.ac.uk/student-ambassadors

Useful Information

Connect to WiFi by selecting ‘lshtm-conf’ and enter the password ‘edwardjenner’. You will then need to enter your email address in a web browser to register.

Take a break! Refreshments can be purchased in the Refectory and enjoyed in the Common Room & Pumphandle Bar.

You can leave your coats or small items of luggage in our lower ground floor cloakroom throughout your visit.

If you need any extra assistance on the day please speak to a member of staff or our Student Ambassadors.

Photographs and/or filming will be taken for use by the School for publicity purposes.

Meet the Mozzie!

Catch our resident mosquito in the South Courtyard. Take a picture and post it to social media using #ContagiousPassion. The best picture will win a bag of School goodies!
Look out for an exhibition of fascinating objects from the School’s archives, on display in the Manson Foyer.

Join our interactive lab tours and meet our researchers, insects and parasites! Book your place at the Registration Desk.
